DETAILED ACTION

This action is responsive to the amendments filed on 9/26/2008. Claims 1 and 3-4 were amended and claims 11- 22 were canceled. No other claims have been amended, canceled, or newly presented. Accordingly, claims 1-10 are pending.

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 9/26/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In substance the applicant argues that Nachman does not teach or disclose: 1) identifying real-time affinity or similarity among the currently active sessions based on session data associated with the currently active user sessions; and 2) therefore not possible for Nachman to disclose forming a user group for users of user sessions having the identified affinity.
2. Regarding 1) and 2), the examiner respectfully disagrees. Nachman discloses: identifying real-time affinity or similarity among the currently active sessions based on session data associated with the currently active user sessions (par. 40-41; link to list of other currently logged [or active] on users watching the same web page, pop-up messages [real time] and registering members and registered details); and furthermore discloses forming a user group for users of user sessions having the identified affinity (par. 40-41; link to list of other currently logged [or active] on users watching the same web page, pop-up messages [real time] and registering members and registered details).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1- 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nachman et al. (hereinafter Nachman) U.S. Publication No.: 2001/0027474 A1.

Claim 1: A method for creating user groups in a network environment comprising the steps of:

monitoring a plurality of user sessions, each session being associated with a different user (Abstract and par. 12- 13 & 44-45; specific users and user authentication);

identifying at least one real-time affinity among the user sessions based on session data associated with currently active user sessions, an affinity being defined as a similarity between two or more user sessions (Abstract and par. 2; real time communications, specific users and grouped users) ;

responsive to said affinity identification, forming a user group for users of user sessions having an identified affinity (Par. 17; group services and forums); and facilitating the users of the user group to engage in communication (par. 14- 17; groups services and forums).

Claim 2: wherein the facilitating step comprises the step of providing access to an interaction application for at least two of said plurality of user sessions responsive to said identified affinity (Par. 14- 17; routing through WSM and forums).

Claim 3: Wherein said prompting step further comprises the step of providing access to an interaction application for at least two of said plurality of user sessions responsive to said identified affinity (Par. 14- 17; forums).

Claim 4: Wherein said prompting step further comprises the step of establishing a communication pathway to facilitate real time communications between users associated with said at least two user sessions (Par. 2 and 14- 17; real time communications and forums).

Claim 5: Wherein said step of establishing a communication pathway further comprises the step of opening at least one of a chat session, an instant messaging session, a newsgroup, and a shared application (Figure 1 and par. 5 & 17; Forums and instant messaging).

Claim 6: Wherein said identifying step includes the step of evaluating session cookies associated with said user sessions (Par. 37; cookies and client information).

Claim 7: Wherein said identifying step includes the step of evaluating session objects associated with said user sessions (Par. 37; cookies and client information).

Claim 8: Wherein said session objects comprise at least one datum selected from the group consisting of a URL which has been accessed, an amount of time on-line, an item in a shopping cart, and a user identifier (Figure 7; items 700 & 704).

Claim 9: Wherein said user identifier comprises at least one of a postal code, an area code, a city, a county, a state, a province, a country and a continent (Figure 7; items 700 & 704).
